Departure of Steamers.

FOR PORT WASHINGTON, &C.

The Steamer Cleveland leaves Johnson & Olmsted's Dock every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening, at 5 o'clock, for Port Washington, Sheboygan, Manitowoc and Two Rivers.

FOR CHICAGO, &C.

The steamer Cleveland will leave Johnson & Olmsted's Dock every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening, at 9 o'clock, for Chicago and intermediate ports.

FOR COLLINGWOOD AND THE EAST.

The Collingwood line of screw steamers leave—one every day, from Dousman's dock, foot of East Water st., connecting at Collingwood with cars from the East.

FOR BUFFALO.

Screw steamers, with good accommodations for passengers, leave the different transportation docks every day for Buffalo.

The Result in the State.

The official figures verify the accuracy of the Sentinel table of returns, published three days after the election, in which we claimed from three to five thousand average majority for the Republican State ticket. The majority for Gov. RANDALL will probably reach four thousand. His colleagues on the ticket run very evenly with the Governor, excepting Treasurer HASTINGS, whose majority exceeds ten thousand.

As to the Legislature, the Republicans have four majority in the Senate, and seventeen in the Assembly—which is considerably better than last year and quite sufficient for all practical purposes.

If there is any more reliable REPUBLICAN State in the Union than our own WISCONSIN, we should like to see it.

THE LEGISLATURE.

With the exception of the Kewaunee, Oconto, Door and Shawano Assembly District, which has probably elected WILEY, Democrat, we have now complete returns from the entire State for Members of the Legislature. The result is as follows:

	Republicans.	Democrats.	Maj.
Senate	17	13	4
Assembly	57	40	17
On joint ballot	74	53	21

Republican majority 21.

ELECTION RETURNS.—Our arrangements are such that we shall be able to give the earliest correct returns of the election this fall, in advance of any of our city cotemporaries, and the figures we give may be relied on as safe.—Note, Election morning.

The readers of the News have been anxiously waiting these two weeks past, for the "early" and "safe" returns, which that veracious and enterprising sheet promised to give "in advance of any of our (its) city cotemporaries." If they are coming, why don't they come along? How about that one thousand majority for HOBART which the News claimed on the 10th, and the "less than a thousand majority" which it conceded to RANDALL on the 12th?

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN ASSEMBLYMAN.—In our table, Saturday; we put down Mr. CUTLER, (dem.) as elected to the Assembly from Adams and Juneau Counties. It turns out, however, that Mr. WOOD, the Republican nominee, is successful, in spite of the loss in Juneau, growing out of the County Seat question. The following are the official majorities:

	Wood (Rep.)	Cutler (Dem.)
Adams	259
Juneau		236

Wood's majority 23. Good!

UNITED STATES MARSHAL'S OFFICE.—We regret to learn that Mr. LEWIS, the newly appointed U. S. Marshal of this State, has removed Mr. W. H. THOMAS, brother of the late Marshal and who had general charge of the books and business of the office, and appointed Mr. FRANCIS HENRY, of Iowa county, in his stead. Mr. THOMAS had discharged the duties of his office faithfully and acceptably, and the circumstances of his brother's death should, it seems to us, have secured his re-appointment.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.—The Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania have issued a call for a "State Convention, to be held at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, February 22d, 1860, at 12 M., to indicate their choice for the next Presidency, nominate a candidate for Governor, form an electoral ticket, appoint Senatorial, and to designate the time and mode of electing District Delegates to the National Convention, and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary to insure success at the General Election."

ASSEMBLYMAN.—There is no doubt of the election of ROMANZO BUNN, Esq., in this Assembly District. He gets 400 majority in this and Trempeleau county, and Buffalo to hear from.—Jackson County Banner.

As Mr. BUNN, the Republican candidate, gets eighty-five majority in Buffalo County, we concur with our friend of the Banner in the opinion that he is very decidedly elected, and by a flattering vote.

Pepin County Official.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

PEPIN, Nov. 16, 1859.

DEAR SENTINEL.—The little county of Pepin claims her place on one of the front seats, by the side of some of the Republican counties of this State, as having given as large a majority as any other, according to the number of votes polled. The Board of Canvassers met yesterday and declared the following: Randall and the rest of the Republican ticket, with one or two exceptions, 178 maj. Truly yours, L.

SUICIDE AT ADRIAN.—CHARLES CORNELL, of Adrian, a gentleman much respected and of unspotted character, committed suicide on Wednesday of last week, by taking arsenic and cutting his throat with a razor, during a fit of insanity or despondency, the cause of which is not definitely known. He was about fifty years of age and a widower. He had been twice married and was contemplating a third marriage with a young lady of good family, in Adrian. He leaves several children. So we learn from the Expositor.

THE CAPITAL EMPLOYED by the Hudson's Bay Company is £1,265,069, and consists of stock standing in the names of the proprietors, £500,000; valuation of the company's lands and buildings, exclusive of Vancouver's Island and Oregon, £318,884. The dividends from 1847 to 1856 averaged about ten per cent. The stock ranged at about 205 for the same period.

MR. THORBURN, (a son of Old GRANT THORBURN of world-wide reputation as a seedsman and horticulter, as well as an author,) will probably, says the Boston Journal, soon be called to Mount Vernon to superintend the restoration of those hallowed grounds laid out by WASHINGTON.

The Election and the Future.

The Election has resulted in the choice of a Republican Legislature and a division of the State Officers between the Republicans and Democrats. While this is less than the more sanguine of our friends hoped for, it is enough to justify most encouraging anticipations for the future.

Republican State Officers are chosen, who have majorities exceeding twenty thousand. The Democratic State Officers elected have only as many hundred. The Republican vote on Senators shows a Republican majority in the State of many thousand.

The Democratic party is reduced to an impotent minority. Without outside aid, it no longer possesses the power to elect a single candidate.

The American Party, so long a disturbing element in our State Politics, is dissolved, and is fast returning to its original elements. Henceforth, the battle in New York will be an open and straightforward one, between the party of Slavery and the party of Freedom.

Last year the united vote of the Democrats and Americans, exceeded that of the Republicans by 48,000. This year, their vote combined, barely exceeds the Republican vote by 1,500 or 2,000. This shows a relative Republican gain of upwards of 45,000 in a single year. We say a relative gain, for the vote of both parties is, of course, lighter than that usually cast at a Gubernatorial or Presidential election. In any contest which shall call out a full vote, a Republican majority is thus rendered certain.

Our opponents have little to rejoice over in a result which exhibits so rapid a decay in their strength. Nor shall we regret that our triumph is a partial instead of a complete one, if it creates, as it doubtless will, more vigilance, more energy and more thorough local harmony, for the future. We might essay here to point out how the whole ticket would have been elected, had that attention been bestowed upon it in a few counties which was absorbed by local issues. But it would be an ungrateful task to censure friends who will themselves draw this lesson from the result far more effectively than we could state it, and who, on the whole, have done so nobly, and come out of the contest so triumphantly. The preliminary skirmish of 1859 affords conclusive proof that New York is in line for the great battle of 1860.—Albany Evening Journal, Nov. 17.

A BUD THAT WAS'NT NIPPED.—The Minneapolis Tribune delivers itself of the following "tol'able good one," which we rerender:

Just before election the Democrats fondly imagined that one vote might save Moses M. Strong from defeat, and they put their wits to work. "Pap," who votes the Democratic ticket, drives a stage to Galena on Mondays, returning on Tuesdays, but too late to vote. The game was to keep him at home and send a Republican in his place, thus making two votes. An ex-U. S. official applies to one of the livery stables for the services of "Bud"—one of the tallest Shanghais, a true-blue Republican, who innocently consents to go—the pay offered being a consideration. He takes the reins, and smells nary rat until asked at Cottage Inn how the election was going in the Point. This set him to scratching his head. He drove on, however, to Galena, and delivered a letter to the landlord from the aforesaid official, in which the plan was set forth, and requesting him to detain the driver as late as possible on the following morning. A good Republican who overheard the letter read, immediately informed "Bud."—There was no time to be lost. He went down to the Post Office and asked our friend Howard:

"Halloo, Mr. Postmaster, what time can I get the mail in the morning?"

"Well," said the P. M., "about eight or nine o'clock."

"No sooner?"

"No."

"But I must have it earlier," says "Bud."

"I want to get back to the Point in time to vote for Hobart and Moses M. Strong."

"Oh, that is it, is it?" said the P. M.; "certainly, you can have the mail at any hour you wish."

"Well, then, I want it at four o'clock."

"All right, come around," said the pleased P. M.

"Bud" came 'round, drove off, quickened the Postmasters along the route by the same appeal, made the distance between the two places in about a "trifle the darndest quickest it was ever did," and having deposited his vote for Randall and Cobb, amused himself in gyrating his fingers against his nose whenever he met a Democrat.

THE ST. JOSEPH (Ind.) Register, Mr. COLFAX's paper, has been enlarged from 32 to 36 columns—the second enlargement in the course of the year. Mr. COLFAX has also added two new power presses to his printing establishment.

EX-PRESIDENT MARTIN VAN BUREN is understood to be engaged upon a political history of the United States, to the close of his administration.

An Editor Lost.

The Grand Rapids Eagle contains an account of the adventures of its senior editor, Mr. TURNER, in the woods:

After having visited Newaygo, with others, he started for home with the rest on Sunday morning last, but, thinking to avoid the roughness of Lake Michigan, and without stopping to calculate how else he was to get to Grand Haven, he leaped ashore from the steam tug, at the mouth of the Muskegon river. To his dismay, he then learned that it was seven miles, and very bad road at that, back to Muskegon village, where he could take the stage; while it was but little more than twice that distance to Grand Haven. So he concluded to start on foot for the latter place. The day was stormy and the Lake rough, and after getting pretty thoroughly drenched by the waves which constantly drove him to the brush or up against the bluffs, and completely saturating a heavy shawl which he carried, he at length reached Black Creek, where he left the beach and concluded to try the back route, where a road has been cut through, but not yet cleared. Those who are at all acquainted with that interminable succession of high bluffs, deep ravines, jungles and quagmires, will readily conceive that, with several inches of snow on the ground, and in the driving storm of Saturday, clothes and a heavy shawl filled like a sponge with water, and with nothing to eat, his task was no light one, and especially for a person whose walking habits are usually confined to the short distance between his residence and place of business.

By this time he begins to feel pretty well exhausted, and, of course, to lament his rashness in leaving the boat. But there was no chance to mend the matter and he trudged on, or rather dragged himself along, now in the yielding snow, now in water, he knew not how deep till he tested it, covered as it was with a snowy veil; now up the steep side of a bluff, and anon tumbling down the opposite declivity; over logs and about stumps, and then closely interlaced brush, to avoid some quagmire; until at about dark he came (as he afterwards learned,) to within about a mile of Ferrysburg, and heard a whistle of a locomotive on the D. & M. Railway. Coming to a place where were several old and indistinct roads and paths, he wandered about in them until exhausted and faint, he gathered some brush and composed himself in his wet garments by the side of a tree, to pass the night.

But the numbness and stiffness which began immediately to creep over his system, admonished him that to allow himself to rest thus would be almost certain death. So, by great exertion, he again dragged himself upon his feet, and resolutely traveled about until daylight came. Soon after, he struck upon the same track he had traveled early in the afternoon of the day before, and from thence, with all the exertion of will and muscle he was master of, he at length, completely exhausted and unable to stand, reached the house of Mr. Thomas Merrill, at Ferrysburg. There he found every attention that sympathy could bestow, and this (Monday) morning found him so far recruited as to be able to ride home. He was out in the storm and without food upwards of 36 hours. He hopes to be able to be at his post again in a day or two. Altogether, it was such a jaunt as we think he will have no desire to repeat.

THE CITY.

The Grain Trade.

After a rather unsettled week, the wheat market was pretty steady on Saturday, and closed about 1c. lower than the prices ruling a week ago—No. 1 Spring selling on the track at 88a89c., and Club and Extra at 90 to 94c. delivered. By the tables in our commercial columns it will be seen that receipts amounted to something better than two hundred and fifty thousand bushels last week, including flour, namely, 8,401 bbls flour and 209,286 bus wheat. Since the 1st of January receipts by Railroad, as reported at the Chamber of Commerce, foot up 182,120 bbls flour, and 4,705,714 bus wheat, or about half a million bushels more than the total receipts for 1858.

Magazines for Binding.

As the year draws to a close, and with it the volumes of the many periodicals subscribed for by our readers, we would call attention to the facilities at the SENTINEL BINDERY for putting all kinds of periodical literature in a durable and convenient shape, at a reasonable price. Let those who have magazines bring them to the SENTINEL office and have them bound. We are also prepared to execute orders for blank books of the heaviest and most ornate description, and are constantly furnishing Ledgers and every variety of business account books to Merchants. Our means of executing durable and ornamental binding are unequalled. Give us a call.

THE HOLIDAYS are coming on apace. Already the confectioners and dealers in "notions" are making room on their shelves for all the ingenious "jim-crackery," supposed to have been invented by the time-honored Santa Claus, who diurnally appears, (at least in the newspapers,)

"On the night before Christmas,
When all through the house
Not a creature is stirring, not even a mouse."

Apropos of confectionery, let us advise all country merchants, within sound of the Sentinel's lusty voice, to take a look in at TRUSLOW'S, ere they lay in their holiday sweets. We are not aware of any establishment this side of STUART'S, Chambers street, New York, where they can so handily pay their money and take their choice.

Santa Claus will give the "guverners" a little shaking up, as well as the youngsters. Business generally receives a little wholesome excitement when the delivery of the New Year approaches; and in view of this, we would remind our business readers of the extreme pleasure it will give us to insert, in the way of an advertisement, any new feature, new goods, new attraction, new anything, or anything old which may enter into their plans for the coming

"Time of fun and revelry."

AT THE LAST SPECIAL MEETING of the Board of Councilors, Councilor TESCH moved for a re-consideration of the vote by which an ordinance entitled "an ordinance authorizing the construction and operation of certain Horse Railways in the streets of the city of Milwaukee," which was passed at the last meeting of the Board. Agreed to.

Councilor TESCH said that there were some parties in the Fourth Ward who wished the Road laid along Spring street—others preferred Wells street. He would therefore move to amend by striking out of Sec. 1, in lines 17, 18 and 19, the following words:

"Also a line commencing at the intersection of Spring and West Water streets, running west on Spring street to the city limits." Which was concurred in.

The ordinance as amended was then passed.

THE PARK FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—This excellent Company—incorporated in 1853—are prepared to insure buildings, merchandize, ships and their cargoes, &c., &c., against loss or damage by fire. The "Park Company" are too well known in every business community, to need any lengthy notice. Their cash capital is two hundred thousand dollars; the surplus, July 1, 1859, was $86,029 29.

IF THE Wisconsin's correspondent "L" can not distinguish the difference between doing a thing, and "making arrangements" to do it, his mental vision must be obtuse indeed. The bitterness of the whole matter at this stage of proceedings eludes our grasp entirely.

CHANGE OF TIME ON THE D. & M. R.—On and after Monday (to-day) the D. & M. Railway steamers will leave Milwaukee at 7 P. M., and arrive at 3 P. M.

December Monthlies.

HARPER comes to us with a fresh freight of good things, and some really excellent wood-cuts, much ahead of the average of Harper's. First, we have a very readable paper on the City of Washington, in 1859, properly illuminated with spirited sketches. Then, we have "Holidays, in Costa Rica, from the pen of T. F. MEAGHER; and an article on Insects, destructive to wheat, which if not entirely original, is nevertheless interesting and valuable.

The Drawer contains a fresh assortment of knick-knacks, from which we select a couple of bijou's new to us:

The thermometer story in the October number recalls an incident of still earlier date in the annals of Indiana legislation. My old old friend JOHNSON W——, then barely of age, had been elected to represent the County of D—— in the Legislature which was about to meet at Vincennes in 1819. But let him tell his own story:

"When I got near Vincennes I began to think what a sorry figure I, a green country lad, would cut in the assembly of the wisdom of the State, and it required all my resolution to keep me from turning back.—Somehow or other I managed to get through the sweating-in process, and sneaked away to a seat, from which I hardly ventured to look up until the House adjourned for dinner. On returning to my hotel I was rather gratified to find that I was to have as a room-mate a brother member, who, as he had made at least six speeches during the forenoon session, I naturally regarded as one of the great men of the House. After dinner he came up to our joint room and carefully closing the door, pulled out of his pocket an enormous, old-fashioned, bull's-eye watch, and handed it to me with this remark:

"'Uncle Jake told me, just as I was starting, that I ought to have a watch, and loaned me this; but I don't know how to screw the thing up; do you?'

"I walked into the legislative hall that afternoon with the most unlimited confidence in my ability to discharge all the duties incumbent on me as a legislator."

We seldom find so coarse a bit of humor in the Drawer as the following; but its very breath will excuse it.

There lives in Halifax, Virginia, a character whom we shall call John C., who has a remarkable facility in making verses. He calls himself a "versatile genius," and asserts that he can convince any body, by a three-hours' talk, that Burns is "nowhere" in comparison with himself. As for Shakspeare, Byron, etc., he can't imagine how they came to be so much "augmented" (meaning overrated, I suppose) by the world. A few nights ago I heard him relate the following "scrape" with a good deal of humor, and with an affectation of propriety of language which should be heard to be appreciated:

"Well, you say you never learn tell of that composition of mine that I call 'Cooner's Funeral Sermon?' Well, then, I'll relate it to you; but I must first give you a preface to it by way of explaining of it.

"You see there used to be a long, yaller, free nigger, named Isaac Cooner, that lived upon Wimbush's pond, and I had a right smart debt of veng-ance sign him, which was this: You see I had hired him to ditch out my branch, jist to irritate the land, which was too mushy and clumpy-like, and he cheated me 'bout it, but I didn't say nothing 'bout it to nobody, but jist nourished it to myself easy and quiet. Well, some time after that I was riding along the road, and I met his mother and a yaller gal—must a been his sister, 'cause they cryin' and lookin' mighty down in the mouth. They didn't know me, and I asked 'em what was the matter, when they up and told me Isaac Cooner was dead, and they'd jist been to the Court-house to git a preacher to bury him, but couldn't find none nowhar.

Well, thinks I, here's a good chance to pay off my debts of vengeance: so I puts on a long face, and begins to snuffle, and tells 'em I reckoned I could do it for 'em; but I didn't belong to the same sex, for I was a Methodist You see I knowed they was Methodists, but I jist put on so to fool 'em. Well, they said, mighty pear, they was Methodists too, and I'd suit 'em mighty well if I'd only do it.—Well, at last I plowed I'd go and preach the funeral at 11 o'clock, and left 'em. When I got to the house there was about twenty or thirty free niggers thar, and I just rode up and tied my horse to an old apple-tree jist outside of the door. They was mighty glad to see me, and had everything ready, and I made 'em put the table close by the front door, and then commenced. Well, I read a chapter in Job, and sung a tune, and looked round to see if my horse was convenient, and then begun the sermon. Says I:

"When Death it comes it does not flatter—
See how it's stretched that long mulatto;
There he is, and there he lies;
No one laughs, and no one cries.
He was a rogue and has gone: his birth,
A useless wretch upon the earth;
The shoats and lambs that he has taken,
Corn and wheat and good old bacon,
Collected together now will sold,
Would amount to more than his weight in gold.
But now he lies as cold as know,
It's the duty of all of us here to shout
That we've got rid of Isaac Cooner,
And wish he'd a gone a great sight sooner.
The neighbors' turkeys, ducks, and geese,
And hen-roosts now may have some peace,
No more will hear the midnight squalling,
And the owners running out and bawling;
And him a taking to his scrapers,
For now he's in——a cutting capers:
How long he'll sting, and how he'll fare,
There's none that know, and few that care.'

"Well, soon as I commenced you never see such a wonderful-looking set of niggers in your life. They was too much astonished to do a thing; and as soon as I got through I bursted out o' the door, and the way I made that old horse use his pins was just about right. As soon as I cut grit they all started too, and let loose two big bull-dogs they had chained; and the last I heard of them they was all a hollerin', 'Sick him! sick him! sic! lick him!'"

GIFT ENTERPRISE.—The drawing of Mrs. F. J. Fox's Gift Enterprise, of superb Oil Paintings, will come off on Saturday evening Nov. 26th, at REIS' Hall in the Market House. More than two-thirds of the tickets have already been taken, and no doubt the rest will be sold before the evening of the drawing. The husband of the persevering and enterprising lady who has gotten up this enterprise, is an Artist, of our city, whose health has failed him, and she takes this method of disposing of some of the productions of his studio. The leading prize is the "Battle of Bunker Hill," valued at $125.—It may be seen at Mr. NOYES' furniture ware rooms, nearly opposite the Sentinel building. Tickets only 50 cents each—to be obtained of Mr. FOX, or at HOOD's Auction Store, HARRY BINGHAM'S and the American Hotel. The Paintings will remain on exhibition at NOYES' Furniture Rooms and HOOD's Auction Store until distributed among the holders of lucky tickets.

LECTURE ON INDIA.—We desire again to call the attention of our readers to the lecture upon India to be delivered by Major CONSTABLE, at Bowman's Hall, this evening. We are sure from what we know of this gentleman's intimate acquaintance with the history of that interesting country, and the social characteristics and habits of the Hindoos, that those who hear him will be both instructed and entertained by his discourse.

PRODUCE AND COMMISSION MERCHANT.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the card of Colonel L. CUTLER, who has opened an Agency at No. 7 Wells street, Milwaukee, for the sale and purchase of Flour, Grain, Pork, Wool and other produce. He has had much experience in the business, and his references are of the best.

THE GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY of CANADA

PUBLIC NOTICE.—The extension of the above Railway to Sarnia, and the completion of the New Line between Port Huron and Detroit, on the 1st of November next, will form a continuous Road under one Management from Detroit, (Michigan), to Toronto, Kingston, Montreal, Quebec and Portland, (Maine) thus establishing a new First Class Route between the Western and New England States.

The connection formed at Detroit with the Michigan Central and Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroads, will enable Freight to be sent through from St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago, Milwaukee, St Paul and all points on the Mississippi River, with greater dispatch than by any other route, as the completion of the Great Victoria Bridge at Montreal, before the close of Navigation, will prevent any interruption to the trade. Only one Transhipment between Portland and Chicago, Cairo, or St. Louis.

At Portland the Grand Trunk connects with the Railroads leading into Boston, also with a First Class Line of Powerful Steamboats which leave Portland and Boston every night.

The Magnificent Vessels forming the Line of the Montreal Ocean Steamship Company, run between Quebec and Liverpool in Summer, and between Portland and Liverpool during Winter, waiting the arrival of the Connecting Trains of the Grand Trunk Railway. Passengers and Freight booked through and put on board free of expense.

At Sarnia (opposite Port Huron), the Company have built extensive Freight Warehouses, and on and after the 15th instant, will be prepared to receive Flour and other Rolling Freight intended to go Eastward by Railway, and store the same, for a reasonable time, Free of Charge.

An Elevator of large capacity is in course of erection at Sarnia, and will shortly be ready for receiving grain.

PROCLAMATION—THANKSGIVING.

ANOTHER YEAR, with its varied experiences and vicissitudes, has nearly gone, the seed time and harvest have passed away, and the products of the earth more abundant and excellent, in many respects than usual, have been gathered in. Our State has been favored by an overruling Providence with exemption from pestilence, or any prevailing disease, and the commercial and financial distress, under which our land has so long suffered, seems to be approaching an end. As a State we have been free from evil disturbances, and men have gone about their daily avocations in peace and quietness. As a nation, too, we have been exempted from the scenes of blood which have been the result in other lands of the shock of contending hosts.

It is right that we should, as a people, render the tribute of our thanks to the Author of all good, for the establishment and continuance of our free institutions, for the general health and prosperity of our people, for the blessings of peace, for the privileges of free education, and freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience, and for all the unnumbered blessings, individual and national, so bountifully showered upon us.

Therefore, in accordance with the time-honored usage, I do hereby recommend to the people of Wisconsin that they observe THURSDAY, THE 24th DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, as a day of THANKSGIVING, and that, abstaining from their secular avocations on that day, they unite in their several localities in grateful praise to Almighty God, for his constant care and abundant mercies.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

L. S.

Done at Madison, this 20th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

Seward's Defeat.

The defeat of Seward in New York—the result of the late election in that State, is essentially a verdict against him, because while succeeding in electing that part of their ticket which was acceptable to the anonymous nothings, on account of the well-known opposition of the candidates to Seward, the Republicans have been defeated on their leading candidate, Gen. Leavenworth, a Seward man, per excellence, and their candidate for State Engineer, who likewise belongs in the same category, and for that reason was not adopted by the know-nothings—we say Seward's defeat on the eve of the Presidential campaign, cannot be otherwise regarded, than as an effectual and final extinguisher of his prospects for the Presidency even the Republican nomination to the Presidency.—News, of Saturday.

The wish is father to that thought.—There is no man spoken of as the Republican candidate for the next President whom the Sham-Democracy so much fear as WILLIAM H. SEWARD. Hence the constant efforts of such organs as the News to persuade itself and its readers that his nomination is out of the question.

The result of the late election in New York, so far from being a defeat of Mr. SEWARD, or the Republican Party, is the most signal triumph they have ever achieved in that State.—At every previous election the Republicans have been in a minority of the popular vote. Now, for the first time, on a large proportion of their candidates for State, Legislative and County Officers, they have a handsome majority. Last year, when they elected their Governor by some 16,000 plurality, the actual majority against them was upwards of fifty thousand. A single year has sufficed to sweep that adverse majority away. In the new Legislature the Republicans are stronger than they have ever yet been, and taking the State together there is not the shadow of doubt that the Republican Party is stronger there to-day than at any moment since its first organization. No sane man can doubt for one moment that WILLIAM H. SEWARD can carry the State of New York for President, against any opposing candidate and over all Democratic and Know-Nothing Coalitions, by an overwhelming majority.

Advice Gratis.

The News, referring to the numerous applications for Deputyships, which the newly appointed U S. Marshal for this State is daily receiving, considerately offers that much persecuted official the following advice:

> We believe that Mr. Thomas showed excellent judgment in his appointments, and it would be a well merited tribute to his memory, as a general thing, to continue those who were Deputies, under him, instead of appointing new ones. The business of the office would be got along with much smoother with experienced instead of inexperienced men, and we know that as a very general thing Mr. Thomas' appointments gave good satisfaction to the Democracy of Wisconsin.

We believe, with the News, that the appointments of the late U. S. Marshal were mainly good ones, and quite acceptable to the Douglas Democracy. The Administration men—especially those hailing from Pennsylvania—complained, on the other hand, that they did not get their share, and as Mr. LEWIS, the new Marshal, is a Pennsylvanian, and a Buchanan Democrat, they reasonably look to him for relief in the premises. We understand that Mr. LEWIS, whose Democracy is Adamantine, has declared that he intends to have no men about him, as Deputies, &c., who are not thorough-going, hard-working Administration Democrats. The consequence is that BUCHANAN stock is rising rapidly in this political market, while DOUGLAS shares are at a discount. After the appointments are made, we look to see a re-action.

MISTAKEN HIS PLEA.—The Editor of the Sentinel, who gave "another rifle" to the Kansas Aid Society for John Brown and his associates to kill people with in Kansas, and who also converted the Sentinel office into a rendezvous, where he and S. M. Booth gave instructions to the leader of a gang of armed men, who were fitted out in this city for the invasion of that territory, denies in his issue of yesterday that he was in any way implicated in fomenting the civil strife which prevailed for a long time there.—News of Saturday.

The Editor of the Sentinel never gave "another rifle" to the Kansas Aid Society, for JOHN BROWN, or anybody else; never "converted the Sentinel office into a rendezvous" for the purpose named by the News; never gave any "instructions to the leader of a gang of armed men, fitted out in this city for the invasion of Kansas;" never knew, or heard of any such "gang"; and never fomented "civil strife" in Kansas, or elsewhere.—Each and all of the above statements of the News are wilful and deliberate falsehoods. Election being over, why should that sheet persist in lying so outrageously? Or has the habit become chronic?

FREE SPEECH AT THE SOUTH.—An "example" has been made of T. A. SALVO in the hospitable town of Bamberg in the civilized State of South Carolina, which the Charleston Mercury hopes will prove a warning to all abolitionists who are travelling through the South in the capacity of pianotumers, map-sellers, and patent medicine venders. The outraged gentleman was tumultuously arrested for having indulged in remarks against the institution of Slavery. He had his hair shaved from one side of his head, received a coat of tar and feathers, was rode on a rail beyond the limits of the village, then turned loose, after being compelled to listen to a lecture, the logical conclusion of which was, that all the efforts of the abolition party to undermine the "institution" would prove unavailing, &c.

THE ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS.—Vesuvius is still in a state of eruption, the lava having now reached a point three miles from the crater. The present mouth was opened eighteen months ago, by a violent earthquake, the cinders from which were carried as far as Constantinople—another proof of the great eastern current. The lava now issues from the base of the cone, passes down the valley below Piano delle Ginestre, and falls into the great ravine known as the Sasse-Grande, 250 feet deep by 1,000 feet broad, which is now completely filled. Below this it cuts across the carriage road in three places, destroys about twenty houses and some olive groves and vineyards, and is now near the Cemetery of Portici, whose inhabitants are full of apprehension. It is estimated that 28,000,000 cubic yards of lava have issued from the crater during this eruption. The temperature of the lava is 200 degrees Fahrenheit. The guides have provided themselves with models in which they cast medallion heads of the King and Queen of Naples, LOUIS NAPOLEON, Queen VICTORIA, VICTOR EMANUEL, Czar ALEXANDER, and even MAZZINI, MURAT, and GARIBALDI.

THE SEWING MACHINE BUSINESS.—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says that the income claimed by Mr. ELIAS HOWE from the Sewing Machine business last year, was $187,210—the manufacturers paying him $5 on each machine for the use of his patent lock stitch.

A MADRID LETTER, in the Brussels Independence, says: "Fifty or sixty persons, hired for the purpose, and placed in little groups in the upper galleries, have renewed, in a more scandalous manner, during a second representation of 'Norma' the scenes which occurred on the first representation.—It was no longer murmurings or whisperings, but groans and noises of all kinds, which completely drowned the voices of Madame Grisi and Mario. The uproar was at its height at the commencement of the duet in the second act. Potatoes were thrown from the upper galleries, falling at the feet of Madame Grisi and rebounding into the pit. The public in the boxes and other parts of the house rose indignantly to protest against such an outrage, but Madame Grisi withdrew, her face bathed in tears. Mario attempted for some seconds to brave the storm, but was obliged to leave the stage. One of the employes of the theatre came forward to announce that the performance would not be continued."

GOOD BYE!—The "subscriber" being about to leave Berlin and go to a place where Republican majorities cease from troubling, and county seat questions are at rest, wishes to return his thanks for the many kindly words and deeds of encouragement which he has received during his residence in Berlin. The Green Lake Democrat will be resumed and regularly issued, on or before the first of December, under the editorial charge of a gentleman well qualified for the position, and who will, we are sure, make it more acceptable to the people of the county than it ever has been under that of LUCIUS H. DRURY.—Green Lake Democrat.

DANGEROUS TO ROYALTY.—The London police received information that a maniac, who was some years back found concealed in Buckingham Palace, with dangerous weapons, had escaped from the Cheshire Lunatic Asylum, where he had been confined since the discovery of his settlement. It is stated that on hearing some one speaking of the Queen's visit to Bangor, he became fearfully excited, and made desperate attempts to escape, which were frustrated. However, he succeeded in breaking from the asylum, and was traced as far as Upton, near Chester, but had hitherto eluded capture.

MODERN CHIVALRY.—Discussion is the better part of valor.

OUR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Mr. Douglas Convalescent—The Speakership—Florence's Review of the Spanish Mission—The Brownsville Troubles—The Queen of Spain's Birthday—Meaning of the Kansas-Nebraska Act—State of the Treasury—The Supreme Court—Southern Intolerance.

Special Despatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

Mr. Douglas is much better to-day, and his entire convalescence is now looked to with certainty.

The greatest contrariety of opinion exists here, among well-informed men, as to the probability of a treaty being negotiated with Mexico. I fear nothing can be done, but the opinion is expressed that Mr. McLane will have just such a treaty ratified by Juarez, as soon as he reaches Vera Cruz.

Florence's Review is out and looks well.—The Colonel is a clever fellow, but is not encumbered with an overplus of brains, and unless he has good help he won't succeed.

It is given up pretty much that Sherman will be elected Speaker, without much trouble. It is likely, as I said before, that a good many Southerners will not be present at the opening of Congress, in order to give the Republicans a chance of organizing, and thus throw upon that party the responsibility of managing public affairs this session.

Mr. Preston has no intention of giving up his post at Madrid. He did not wish to seek leave of absence, but was induced to do so by his relatives in Kentucky, who believed his presence at home to be absolutely necessary.

Nothing yet has been definitely determined upon in regard to the French mission, but as Soidell has secured a majority of the Louisiana Legislature, he will not want the position. As I told you yesterday, the Cortinas invasion is a God-send to the Administration.

The President favors seizing all the Northern provinces of Mexico, and will, I think, recommend this in his message.

The Spanish Minister gives a grand diplomatic dinner on Saturday, in honor of the birth-day of the Queen of Spain.

The Democratic party, owing to the pressure of the Southern ultraists, finds itself in a difficult situation.

After the passage of the Nebraska bill, Mr. Breckenridge, and other prominent Democrats, asserted that it was intended to give the people of the Territories the right to manage their domestic affairs.

The new Southern doctrine is that Congress must pass laws to protect slavery in the Territories. How will the gentlemen who supported the Nebraska Act, on the grounds first mentioned, reconcile it with consistency, to add this new plank to their platform?—And yet I am much mistaken if the South will not make this demand resolutely and firmly at Charlestown. The signs of the times are ominous of evil.

Special Despatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.

Since the recent elections, Mr. Buchanan's friends claim he is the only Democrat who has any chance of success in 1860, and the same belief prevails at the White House, though the President lately admitted he could not carry Pennsylvania. Let him be nominated by all means.

The District Attorney had an interview with the President last night, concerning the troubles of that Territory, in enforcing the law and punishing outrages. As the Administration confides in the judgment of Gov. Cumming, it is doubtful if any practical action will be taken.

Mr. Douglas' physicians say his condition is still precarious from fluctuating symptoms, but if it does not recede beyond the point it has maintained for the last twenty-four hours, he will probably recover. His sufferings have been terrible. He has sent for his confidential man of business in Chicago, who is expected to arrive here in the morning.

Mr. Allen, the present Democratic Clerk of the House, expects a renomination by the aid of Anti-Lecompton votes. His subordinates are weak enough to count on other support also. They dislike surrendering the spoils, but they had better be resigned.

The Secretary of the Treasury is engaged upon his report. Beside an apparent balance of $4,700,000 in the Treasury, the Secretary has $5,000,000 in notes, received from Customs during the heavy imports, which are capable of re-issue, and about one million more is anticipated. These two sums, with a temporary draft upon the working margin department, will enable him to meet the Post Office demand of about eight millions, by the 1st of January, and one million for Congressional mileage. If the revenue fulfills his anticipations afterwards, he can get on. If not, a new loan will be necessary.

The docket of the Supreme Court is crowded this term. The Government alone has ninety cases entered.

To show how anti-slavery men are treated at the South, I give you the following from a late Southern paper:

> An Abolitionist calling himself T. A. Salvo, was taken up at Hamburg, S. C., on the 10th inst., for being too free in the expression of his opinions, had his head shaved on one side, and having a coat of tar and feathers applied to him, he was then rode on a rail beyond the limits of the village.

THE VIRGINIA PANIC.—Virginia is still in an uproar. The fright has become a panic. The tumult was continued throughout Thursday night, and in the headlong terror, which each man was busy propagating, the authorities fell to arresting each other. A messenger dispatched by the citizens of Harper's Ferry to Charlestown, to get reliable information, was actually taken in custody both going and returning! A Munchausen story was started to the effect that 280 Abolitionists were on the march to release Brown. The chivalry remembering how seventeen men took Harper's Ferry a month ago, were frightened almost to death. The 280 men have not reached Charlestown, but a company of federal troops have gone up from Washington to protect the State. The moral of this ridiculous panic is, that the pro-slavery orators and presses, North and South, have lied so vehemently for the purpose of driving New York and New Jersey into the Democratic party, that they have thrown Virginia into a perfect riot of fear. We shall not be surprised to hear of a deadly collision between the different patrols around Charlestown before Brown is under the sod—that is, if there be any fighting material in that region except Old Brown.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Madrid letter, in the Brussels Independence, says: "Fifty or sixty persons, hired for the purpose, and placed in little groups in the upper galleries, have renewed, in a more scandalous manner, during a second representation of 'Norma' the scenes which occurred on the first representation.—It was no longer murmurings or whisperings, but groans and noises of all kinds, which completely drowned the voices of Madame Grisi and Mario. Interesting Foreign Items.

WEARING HOOPS IN JERUSALEM.—A lady correspondent of the Boston Traveller, writing from Jerusalem, says:

While passing down the main street, I witnessed a very amusing incident, occasioned by the appearance of a lady in hoops. She was overtaken by a group of Turkish soldiers, and the bulky form of her dress caused them great amusement, as well as wonder; so it was determined among them to solve the mystery; accordingly, one of them practised the following ruse: He quickened his pace to reach the lady's side, and when about to pass her he partly fell to the ground.—While in the act of falling he clutched her dress, as the only means within his reach of saving himself from the fall; but his true object was very evident, for I saw him go to his companions and tell them of the wonderful machinery by which the lady was surrounded; and although it is considered in the East absolutely sinful for a man to be stow even a momentary glance on a woman, yet withdraw their eyes from this Occidental novelty they could not; nor did she escape them by turning off another street. They stopped at the lower end of the alley into which she had turned, and watched her until the gloom of a dark and distant archway hid her from view. I dare say, however, should one of these sheeted women of the East appear in the streets of one of our cities, the merriment and wonder created by her ghostly appearance would be equally as great as that with which Occidental fashions are regarded in this country. This lady was visited by a score of Turkish ladies, who, after handling this curious portion of her wardrobe with great amazement, begged to be pointed out either the beauty or utility of a hooped skirt. The Frank lady brought all her eloquence to bear upon the advantages of her favorite article of dress—but they exclaimed, "Allah save us from this great umbrella which you Frank ladies consider so indispensable to your beauty and comfort, and Allah grant, also, that we may be spared the pain of the tightly fitting clothes with which you torture yourselves!" They then commanded the slaves to make preparations for prayer, and the rugs having been spread and their faces veiled, they immediate commenced their intricate process of prayer, no doubt thanking high heaven that they were exempt from these strange fashions.

THE correspondent of the Philadelphia Gazette writing from Paris says:

A letter has been published by the newspapers purporting to be one addressed by the present Emperor to Pope Gregory XVI, in 1831, and strongly recommending him to lay down his temporal authority, if he wishes to make himself "adored" by the Romagnese population. "What they desire," it says, "is the separation of the temporal and spiritual authority." The Pope is also reminded that he is the head of a religion whose basis is the most liberal book in existence—the holy Scriptures. "The letter is remarkable, especially at the present moment; but it appears that it was not actually "written" by the Emperor himself, though there can be little doubt that it expresses his sentiments. The Moniteur considers it of sufficient consequence to inform the public officially that it was penned "by the Emperor's brother, Prince Napoleon, who died at Forli, in 1831." Both the young Bonapartes were then fighting for the independence of Italy in the revolted provinces of the Papacy, and undoubtedly shared the same opinions, as they combated for the same cause; so that the denial of the Moniteur is one of form only. Prince Napoleon, the elder, died in one of the conflicts which then took place; and his mother, Queen Hortense, fled with Louis Napoleon, the younger, and present Emperor to Paris, where she was most kindly received by Louis Philippe, as relat-d by M. Guizot, in the second volume of his memoirs.

The Brussels papers furnish the following: "A melancholy circumstance has happened at Hamburg. A man, who had been playing for some time with the usual luck of all gamesters, put down his last Napoleon and lost it, like the rest. He drew a pistol out of his pocket, and blew his brains out, whilst sitting at the fatal trente et quarante table.—The people that are generally in attendance threw a cloth over his face, and carried the wretched man out, life being quite extinct, and the game proceeded as if nothing had occurred.

THE Emperor of China has rewarded in a brilliant manner Gen. Sung-ko-lut-sin—more commonly called "Kiwan-ay," who commanded the forts of Taku and the Mongol troops at the battle of Peiho, on the 24th of June. He named him Generalissimo of the Chinese armies, and what is more important, "First Mandarin of the yellow standard edged with green," a dignity that has not been conferred for a long time. Sung-ko-lut-sin is, moreover, uncle of the reigning Emperor. He has always held high commands, and enjoys a great reputation for military science throughout the Empire. He has some literary reputation also, being the author of military works, many of which have been translated into the Russian language, and in which he quotes the authority of some of the most eminent warriors, among them that of the Emperor Napoleon I., with whose immortal campaigns he appears to be thoroughly acquainted.

THERE'S MANY A SLIP 'TWIXT THE CUP AND THE LIP.—Scandal is very rampant just now concerning an attempted elopement from a locality situated not a hundred miles from Teignmouth. A young lady possessing considerable personal and purse attractions, wishing to exchange the wearisome surveillance of an antiquated aunt for the rosy bonds of Hymen, appointed a rendezvous with the favored swain at the Exeter station. The time came, and there was the man anxiously awaiting the arrival of the up train. On its arrival the lover handed out the fair fugitive, who was closely enveloped in a large cloak with a hood, as had been previously agreed. Our friend conducted her into the refreshment room, and was, no doubt, on the point of whispering some "soft nothings" into the willing ears of the damsel, who seemed violently agitated, when —horror of horrors!—the hood being suddenly removed, he beheld the venerable visage of his lady-love's aunt, instead of the blooming face of his Hebe! Without waiting for any explanation the discomfited amorist fled precipitately.

THE Paris correspondent of the London Globe, has taken out from the papers of an old book stand, a police report furnished to the Austrian Governor at Venice during Lord Byron's stay at Ravenna. It is dated from Rome, October 2nd, stating the Poet Lord's departure from that place, and intention to visit Venice. "On the twelfth of this month an English Peer, one Byron, starts from Rome, he passes for a poet in his own country, and is suspected of affiliation with the secret society of Roma Antica—at least his writings has been described to me as of the 'romantic school,' which I presume means corbonaro. He is known for the exaggeration of his liberalism. I have seen reason to keep an eye on this individual."

MR. BAILLY, the President of the London Astronomical Society, has been for six years weighing the world in different ways, and is now sure he has obtained its specific gravity so nearly accurate that his figures cannot err more than 0,0058. He places it at 5,6747.—The total weight of the world in gross tons of 2,240 pounds according to his scales is (6,032,165,592,211,410,488,889) six thousand and sixty-two millions, one hundred and sixty-five thousand, five hundred and ninety-two billions, two hundred and eleven thousand, four hundred and ten millions, four hundred and eighty-eight thousand, eight hundred and eighty-nine tons.

GRISI AND MARIO, were obliged, after two attempts to sing in Madrid, to throw up their engagement and leave the city. The first evening they were driven from the stage by hisses and yells and other demonstrations, which made it impossible for them to proceed. Grisi made an appeal to the public in the papers the following day, but a second attempt to sing met with no better success.—A Paris letter writer ascribes the demonstration to a feeling against Mario, whose first wife was a Spanish heiress, whom he deserted, after he had squandered her fortune, causing her to die broken-hearted.

The Madrid Iberia publishes the following story: "It appears that the English engineers at Gibraltar feel mortified at being placed under the orders of mulattoes and African architects. There is especially a mulatto of enormous corpulence and lofty stature, who, draped in an ample burnous, and his brow bound with a turban, gives himself airs of importance most mortifying to stupid English pride. This man comes to examine the works, to give them all the perfection possible; he speaks to nobody, looks at everything with the most disdainful air, and condescends to give orders through an interpreter to hundreds of English who are at present fortifying 'La Langue du Diable' (the Devil's Tongue), a very important battery at Gibraltar."

THE manuscripts of Swedenborg's writings, containing sketches of his journey in Holland in 1743, and several of his mystical speculations, have been discovered in Stockholm.

THE statement in regard to the retirement of Sir James Clark, from his position as physician, in attendance upon her Majesty Queen Victoria, has been officially contradicted in the London papers.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

HOME AGAIN, AFTER BEING ABSENT for nearly six months; have seen no city where business or speculation seems so lively as Milwaukee. Find business all the cities generally dull, except New York, and that somewhat so. In real estate operations, Milwaukee abundant in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore; is daily receiving large amounts of Eastern capital, in for cent. for home securities, but at present they prefer not to invest or loan on Western property; but that is a passing cloud, and I am confidently feeling now exists towards the West than there did six months ago, and I have no doubt in my own mind that within the next six months we shall see a great reaction in our operations in our city, and still a greater one; we will manage to pay up promptly, and in the mean time, I am feeling quite at home feeling identified with Milwaukee. I have seen no place to compare with it, or that I would be willing to exchange for, and I am satisfied in my own mind that we will go ahead and grow more rapidly the next five years than we have the last five. I am myself, perfectly contented with Milwaukee, but shall always go. Milwaukee is too important a point to be neglected. My business I would say am now ready to attend to my Auction and Commission business in the same way, and at the same stand as heretofore. Will attend to all sales strictly attended to. My Auction Room is very large, and I can store away any amount of Goods.

I am now home though from Europe, I stopped at Harper's Ferry and obtained one of Capt. Osawatomie Brown's Pikes. All who have any curiosity to see this instrument of death, call at my Auction Room. CALEB WALL.

Special Notices.

PILES! PILES!! PILES!!!
What is it? How Cured?

THOUSANDS OF PERSONS HAVE PILES—suffer for years with the disease—yet few know what it is, or how it is cured. Every case of Piles, whether manifested in the form of external tumors, frequent bleeding, or in violent itching and irritation, depends essentially upon congestion of the abdominal venous circulation. This produces the engorgement, dilation of the veins, formation of tumors, hemorrhages, pain and suffering: and the disease can only be fundamentally cured by medicines which, taken internally, relieve this abdominal venous congestion. Hence, ointments, washes, and even injections, are ineffectual. HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC PILE SPECIFIC, a simple sugar pill, taken two or three times per day, cures the disease by curing the condition upon which the disease depends. Hundreds have been cured by it, even of the most obstinate cases. All will be promptly benefitted by it. Price 10 cents a box.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty remedies, in large 3-drachm vials, and morocco case, $5: do, in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book, $2.

These remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address

LIVE FOR SOMETHING.

Live for something, be not idle—
Look about thee for employ!
Sit not down to useless dreaming—
Labor is the sweetest joy.
Folded hands are ever weary,
Selfish hearts are never gay,
Life for thee has many duties—
Active be, then, while you may.

Scatter blessings in thy pathway!
Gentle words and cheering smiles
Better are than gold or silver,
With their grief-dispelling wiles.
As the pleasant sunshine falleth,
Ever on the grateful earth,
So let sympathy and kindness
Gladden well the darkened hearth.

Hearts there are oppressed and weary;
Drop the tear of sympathy;
Whisper words of hope and comfort,
Give, and thy reward shall be
Joy unto thy soul returning,
From the perfect fountain-head,
Freely, as thou freely gavest,
Shall the grateful light be shed.

A Sketch of Gerrit Smith.

From the Albany Evening Journal.

With those who have known Gerrit Smith longest and most intimately, his present and melancholy condition is more a matter of regret than of surprise. His mind has hovered on the borders of insanity for more than a quarter of a century. His physical health was destroyed many years ago, by his peculiar habits and views in regard to temperance and diet.

Gerrit Smith was by nature munificently endowed. We knew him first in 1841, then wooing and winning Wealthy Backus, his first wife, and neither before or since, have we seen a nobler specimen of manhood. To high intellectual gifts, he added a form and face of surpassing beauty.

"Whose red and white,
"Nature's own sweet and cunning hand laid on."

Then ardent, generous, and as ever, impulsive, he lived for several years in the quiet enjoyment of refined social and domestic happiness. Though early bereaved of an accomplished wife, he was subsequently restored to all the endearments of home by a marriage with a daughter of the late Col. Fitzhugh, an equally estimable lady.

Some thirty years ago, then a young man of great promise, buoyant in spirits, and looking at the bright side of all the scenery of life, he was an unsuccessful candidate for the State Senate. That disappointment disturbed the herstofore "even tenor of his way," and tinged the future of his whole life. He looked less hopefully upon men and things. He became, as he believed, a Philanthropist, but it was the Philanthropy, bias of charity than of force. From an ardent Colonizationist, he became an ultra abolitionist; and his persuasive zeal for Temperance changed to coercive measures in favor of Prohibition. Of his ample fortune, he dispensed in aid of Abolitionism and Temperance, with more liberality than wisdom. Both his perverted talents and his misapplied money injured the objects he sought to promote.

Mr. Smith has lived for nearly thirty years in a state of political hallucination. The delusion culminated last year, when, greatly excited, he devoted his time and money to a canvass which he believed was to result in his election as Governor, while every other person in the State knew that he was wasting his strength and his means. That disappointment left him too well prepared, in body and mind, for the shock which has overthrown his too long unbalanced intellect.

The Harper's Ferry insurrection was an attempt to carry the preachings of prominent Abolitionists into practical effect. It was foreshadowed in a letter from Mr. Smith to the "Jerry rescuers." That he ever intended slaves should rise, rob and murder, we do not believe; but in speeches and letters he indulged in language which bears no other construction. Unfortunately "Ossawatomie Brown," driven to madness by slavery oppression and outrage, was too ready to carry into practice the principles which others were only reckless enough to teach.

The South has little reason to regret the Harper's Ferry outbreak. While it caused slight injury to the citizens of Harper's Ferry, some fifteen of the actors in it were shot dead, and those who survived are doomed to the scaffold. This example, if slavery be wise enough to profit by it, will be salutary. But if they are not content with the punishment of the guilty; if the blood of twenty madmen and fanatics proves an insufficient atonement; if they insist upon confounding those who resist the extension and aggression of slavery, with those who demand its abolition, they will commit a grave error.

In the meantime, with knowledge of the noble and generous nature of Gerrit Smith, we cannot but deeply deplore the dispensation which deprives him of reason. His giant mind, ever too active, wildly possessed by ONE IDEA, has finally, by various "declensions," fallen "Into the madness wherein now he raves.

* * * * * *
"Oh, what a noble mind is here o'erthrown?
The courtier's, soldier's, scholar's eye, tongue, sword;
The expectancy and rose of the fair State,
The glass of fashion, and the mould of form,
The observ'd of all observers; quite, quite down."

Passages from the Saturday Press.

"HIGH-LOWE-GAME."—Mr. Lowe, on being asked by a countryman what he was getting up his aerial ship for, replied: "Only for a Flyer!"

"BOX AND COCKS."—A chicken coop.

PRESIDENTIAL SPECULATION.—As there is little prospect of electing a President who has any idea how to write, it is to be hoped, at least, that we shall elect one who can "make his mark."

CAWS AND EFFECT.—Crows and scarecrows.

THE "UPPER-TEN"—OR.—Brignoli.

CANARD.—The report that Mr. George Law has purchased Harper's Ferry.

HOW TO BECOME A GREAT BROKER.—Break a Little every three months.

QUESTION FOR THE TRIBUNE.—What has become of Pike's Peak?

"THE WISE AND THE OTHERWISE."—Governor Wise and his son.

THE ELECTION—ADDITIONAL RETURNS.—The return home of disappointed candidates.

APROPOS TO THANKSGIVING.—Mr. Oscanyan announces that he has prepared a lecture on Turkey.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.—"Tempus" suggests that the difference between the imported and the American watch is, that the former owes its success to faith, and the latter to good works.

LATEST NEWS.—Spain has declared her readiness to supply Morocco with any quantity of leather.

A BOOK FOR THE MILLION.—Astor's bank book.

SALTY.—Apropos of the late violent storm in England, the papers say "The Great Eastern rode it out well." For the edification of the unnautical reader, we will explain that she rode it on a horse, sir, [hawser.]

PICKPOCKET'S MOTTO.—When found take a note of.

NEW NAME FOR PARISIANS—Gallic-Cookneys.

DE GUSTIBUS, ETC.—Jenkius, on being asked how he liked old paintings, replied that having seen Page's Venus, he had a decided preference for the nude.

A NEW JO.—Jo. Cose defines taciturn people as people who know how to keep their thoughts "where the flies can't get at them."

SMALL FAMILIES.—"Malthus" writes us, in great concern of mind, to know what is meant by the sign which he sees in various parts of the city: "Families supplied by the quart."

CORPORATION NOTICE.—You are getting too fat, old fellow?

"THE WIFE'S SECRET."—Her opinion of her husband.

MR. LOWE'S LAST WORD TO HIS FRIENDS.—A Reservoir.

THE CHILD'S GREATEST FOE.—Defoe.

SUBJECTS OF THE DAY.—Algerians.

THE GREATEST VIRTUE IN A SEA CAPTAIN.—Wreck-less-ness.—[Saturday Press. Nov. 12.

COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY EVENING, November 19th.

Money Matters.

Coercney has been in good supply during the past week, and the banks would have felt no inconvenience in discounting considerably more produce paper than has come into their hands. All the offerings of straight business paper are freely taken by the banks at the legal rate. Exchange is firm at 1¼ premium, and during one or two days was rather close at the current rate.

Commercial.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14th.—Receipts: 4,721 bbls flour, 43,150 bus wheat, 43,415 bus corn, 4,840 bus oats, 5,512 bus barley.

The Press & Tribune says:

This has been the quietest day in the wheat market this season. On account of an increase in the receipts, in hope of a material decline, shippers withdrew their orders, and the holders, in view of these indications at the decline, however, were very trifling—holders having generally refrained from offering their stocks. Only about 17,000 bu-hels of all grades changed hands at $1 00 for No 1 Spring; 96@97c for No 2 do; 85@86c for No 1 Spring; and 80@86½c for No. 2 spring—the market closing nominal at 96@96½c for No 2 spring. Flour was also dull and the market closing nominally easier. About 700 barrels were sold at $4,40@4,62 1-2 for good brands of spring extra and $3,50@4,00 for superfine.

The receipts of live hogs to-day were again liberal, and the active demand by shippers and packers sustained the market in the early part of the day beyond the most sanguine expectations. Heavy hogs were taken by shippers principally, and some by packers, at $4 40@4 60 gross, and light hogs sold at $3 75@4 00. Towards the close, however, owing to the decline in dressed hogs, the packers withdrew, and the market closed heavy and nominally lower. Dressed hogs, on account of the mild weather, sold for from 5½@5¾c per lb for heavy pressed to sale at $5,00, and light at 4,40@4,75. In the early part of the day several lots sold as high as $5,00, but in the afternoon they were dull at $5,—several of the heaviest hogs in the city had been left, and commenced operations, and from this time onward, if the supply of hogs continues, we will have an active market. In provisions there is little doing. Cut meats are easier, but the stock is not light—but there is not much disposition on the part of the packers to test the market. Bulk shoulders are in demand at 5 1-4c—holders asking $5,40@5,50. Bulk sides are offered for future delivery at 6 3-4@6 c, without buyers. A lot of 2,000 green hams were sold to-day for delivery by a packer from Monday next, at 8 3-4—which shows a decline of 1-4c from the sales made yesterday. There is nothing doing in Mess pork, either for present or forward delivery. Lard is also quiet. Tallow in good demand at 10 1-4c—holders asking 10 1-2.

In cattle we had a more active and a better market for prime beeves—with sales at $2,60@3,00. Thin cattle, however, continue dull and heavy at $1,50@2,00.—Good packing cattle in fair demand, at $2,25@2,50, at which there were free sales. The weather continues favorable for beef packers, and about 700 head per day are now being killed.

Freights are dull. We report only one engagement to-day—a schooner with corn to Buffalo at 6c.

Weekly Review of Milwaukee Markets.

SATURDAY, November 19, 1859—6 P. M.

FREIGHTS—Rates of insurance having advanced after the 15th, receipts of grain decreasing, and an unusually large number of vessels arriving here and at Chicago from the lower Lakes anxious to return before the close of navigation, freights on wheat have declined 1@1¼c. Vessels were offering to go to Buffalo to-day at 5½@5¾c, and to other Eastern ports at correspondingly reduced rates. Rates on flour by steam or rail have not changed, and are not likely to change immediately.

FLOUR—Receipts by rail 3,729 bs against 6,155 last week. The market for butter continues dull, and prices of firkin range from 10 to 18c for common to prime. Jar and roll butter have sold at 13@15c.

EGGS—Firm, and bring 9@ 12c by the barrel. Supply light.

DRESSED HOGS—Receipts by rail have been 2,585 head, and quite a considerable number have come in by team. A very active demand existed all through the week up to Friday, when the market declined 25 to 37½c under increased receipts and unfavorable weather for packing. Previous to Friday, prices were strained to a higher point than any reached last week, heavy hogs selling at $5,87½@6,06 per hundred. On Friday the highest price paid was $5,62½. Below we give the principal sales of each day in rotation:

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 19th.

WEATHER—Warm and cloudy. Light breeze from the N. N. W.

SCHOONER W. H. DEWITT ASHORE.—During the heavy blow of Friday night, the schooner W. H. Dewitt in attempting to make the harbor, missed the Straight Cut, and went ashore a little south of the entrance to the harbor. She had 25,000 ft. Lumber on board, and is owned by W. B. Hibbard of this city. As soon as the lake becomes quiet she will probably be got off without much damage.

THE SCHOONER SIRIUS, which, it will be remembered, went ashore at Racine in the great equinoctial storm and has since been repairing at Capt. Jones' shipyard, cleared to-day for Oswego with a cargo of wheat. It cost about $3,000 to repair the damage she sustained in that storm.

MATE LOST.—The schooner W. J. Whaling came into port to-day with her flag at half-mast, her second mate, a man named THOMAS CARTER, having been lost overboard in the Straits of Mackinac on Sunday morning last. CARTER was about 30 years of age, and he leaves a wife and three children in this city.

VESSELS PASSING DETROIT during the 24 hours ending Friday noon:

UP.—Propeller Kenosha, Buffalo; brig F B Gardner; schooners Niagara, Jones Pointe, Yankee Blade, Henry Hager, Arcturus, Dane, H L Lansing.

DOWN—Brig Gladiator; schooners White Cloud, R P Hubbard, E Fletcher.

Weather hazy, with light easterly breeze.

LIST OF VESSELS passing through the Welland Canal furnished to the Board of Underwriters. The following vessels passed the Port Colborne Lock from 4 o'clock P. M. on the 16th till four o'clock P. M. on the 17th Nov:

BOUND WEST—November 16th none; November 17th none.

BOUND EAST—November 16th, schooners Eclipse, Kyle Spangler, Thos Kingsford, Plymouth Rock, Ben Franklin; on the 17th, schooners Enterprise, G D Nerie, C M Peck, Northern Belle, scow Hunter.

PORT COLBORNE, Nov. 17.

The schooner Mountaineer is in this port for shelter.

J. M. GILLIVARY.

MARINE.—A despatch was received in this city, yesterday, from Racine, stating that the propeller Nile, of the American Transportation Co.'s Line, was lying outside, disabled. She left Racine yesterday morning, and had proceeded but a short distance when it was discovered that she was crippled in some way, as yet unknown except to those on board. The steam tug McQueen was despatched from this port to her assistance in the afternoon.

The propeller Acme left port, Wednesday evening, and while passing through the "middle ground," off the South Pier, struck heavily on the bottom, smashing her rudder and otherwise disabling her. She was loaded down very deep. The McQueen brought her back into port.—Chicago Journal, Nov. 18.

NAVIGATION.—The river was covered with coating on yesterday morning, and boats were unable or unwilling to come up further than Hastings, and it is not probable that we shall have any more arrivals this season. The Grey Eagle came up to Hastings on Monday, and sent the mail overland to this city. There are several boats now due from St. Louis, but their freight will have to be landed at points below than in almost any previous year.—Saint Paul Pioneer, Nov. 16.

ESTRAY.

CAME INTO THE ENCLOSURE OF the subscriber, on or about the 20th inst., TWO COWS, one about 7, and the other about 10 years old. Both of said Cows are red—the white a star on her forehead, and white spots on the flanks—the other has no star on her forehead, but has a white stripe on the rump and spots on the flank. The two Cows are very nearly alike. The owner (or owners) is requested to call at my residence, in the town of Granville, Milwaukee county, one-half mile west of Swartzburg station, on the La Crosse Railroad, prove property, pay charges and take the same away. Consumption and Asthma Cured.

DR. H. JAMES DISCOVERED, while in the East Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Colds and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die. His child was cured and has now attained womanhood. Desirous of benefitting his fellow mortals, he will feel it a duty to make known to them the means, containing full directions for self-cure, by which he was successfully using the remedy, free, on receipt of a post paid addressed envelope. Address, Dr. H. James & Co., 37 Canal street, New York. aug18dawly
